

Kawana McCloud is the new Head of Middle School at Gateway College Prep. Prior to joining Gateway, she served as middle school administrator with eStem, a charter school system in Arkansas. Her career path includes classroom management at all levels of primary and secondary schooling, including coordinating RTI, 504, testing and family engagement.

Kawana is a lifelong learner who has accepted her commitment in education as a calling on her life. She takes great pride in supporting fellow educators and contributing to reshaping the perception of the educational system in that it is the foundation of preparing students for life, work, and citizenship.

Kawana earned her Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education and Master of Education in Early Childhood Education at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff. She went on to obtain her Integrated Early Childhood Special Education Endorsement and Educational Leadership (School Administrator, K-12) certification at Harding University, Searcy, AR. Kawana has two boys, Donovan and Gabe. When not spending time with her family, she enjoys decorating, traveling and karaoke. Welcome, Kawana!
